

Individually Strong, Collectively Stronger!

Value	I will	Article	We will
Honesty	I will always tell the truth.	Article 13: You have the right to find out things and share what you think with others, by talking, drawing, writing or in any other way unless it harms or offends other people. Article 42: You have the right to know your rights! Adults should know about these rights and help you learn about them, too.	We will always seek the truth and be willing to have conversations and share information that will help others.
Respect	I will always respect myself and everyone else.	Article 2: All children have these rights, no matter who they are, where they live, what their parents do, what language they speak, what their religion is, whether they are a boy or girl, what their culture is, whether they have a disability, whether they are rich or poor. No child should be treated unfairly on any basis. Article 12: You have the right to give your opinion, and for adults to listen and take it seriously. Article 16: You have the right to privacy.	We will support everyone so that they feel that they are being treated with dignity and respect at all times.
Tolerance	I will support everyone	Article 14: You have the right to choose your own religion and beliefs. Your parents should help you decide what is right and wrong, and what is best for you. Article 28: You have the right to a good quality education. You should be encouraged to go to school to the highest level you can.	We will be understanding of our own and different people's needs at different times to support our community.
Kindness	I will treat others as I wish to be treated.	Article 2: All children have these rights, no matter who they are, where they live, what their parents do, what language they speak, what their religion is, whether they are a boy or girl, what their culture is, whether they have a disability, whether they are rich or poor. No child should be treated unfairly on any basis. Article 3: All adults should do what is best for you. When adults make decisions, they should think about how their decisions will affect children. Article 31: You have the right to play and rest.	We will be welcoming to all and understanding of what someone else has experienced.
Trust	I will trust that my community will support me.	Article 2: All children have these rights, no matter who they are, where they live, what their parents do, what language they speak, what their religion is, whether they are a boy or girl, what their culture is, whether they have a disability, whether they are rich or poor. No child should be treated unfairly on any basis. Article 3: All adults should do what is best for you. When adults make decisions, they should think about how their decisions will affect children. Article 12: You have the right to give your opinion and for adults to listen and take it seriously. Article 16: You have the right to privacy. Article 22: You have the right to special protection and help if you are a refugee (if you have been forced to leave your home and live in another country), as well as all the rights in this Convention. Article 39: You have the right to help if you've been hurt, neglected or badly treated.	We will trust that the people around us are there to keep us safe and protect us. We will trust that they will help us when we need it and we will help them in return.
